

SMOKE ALARMS QUESTIONS/ANSWERS

When should I replace the Smoke Alarms in my home?

- When smoke alarms fail to operate during testing or no longer than 10 years from the manufacture date.

What is required when replacing smoke alarms?

- (1) Combination smoke/carbon monoxide detector is required on each floor in addition to the smoke alarms. Combination detectors may be battery powered and must be replaced in accordance to the manufacturer's published instructions.
- Ensure all alarm devices are compatible.

Where can I purchase new smoke alarms?

- Smoke alarms and combination smoke/carbon monoxide detectors are available at any local building supply center.