The promotion and expansion of arts and culture in Surprise is the primary focus of the Arts & Cultural Advisory Commission.

The Commission is committed to ensuring that arts, culture and entertainment are central elements both of the quality of life for our residents and of the “visitability” of our city.

Arts and culture have a significant impact on economic vitality by attracting visitors, increasing leisure spending and providing a well-rounded and diverse community to attract new residents to provide a quality workforce for new businesses moving to Surprise.
Per Municipal Code - the primary purpose of the commission is to serve in an advisory capacity to the council on matters relating to the development and placement of public art and to encourage the development of cultural opportunities and resources for the Surprise community.
During an analysis of the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats the Arts & Cultural Advisory Commission identified the following:

Strengths
- Growing, diverse population
- Support of City Council
- Stadium facilities for outdoor arts and cultural events

Weaknesses
- Lack of funds
- Lack of museums
- Limited performing arts facilities

Opportunities
- Existing arts entities
- Existing city amenities

Threats
- Economic climate
- Political climate
- Established events in other cities
The mission of the Arts & Cultural Advisory Commission is to encourage cultural growth in Surprise and to ensure that art, culture and entertainment are central elements of the quality of life for Surprise residents.

To this end, the Commission will encourage the development of cultural opportunities and resources, as well as the creative, social, and community benefits they provide.
